

£470,000 Freehold

93 Queensway, Reading, RG4 6SJ

A wonderful semi-detached family home, located on a sought after road, within the popular Caversham Park Village, convenient for many amenities. The well-presented and upgraded accommodation comprises - entrance , living/dining room, modern kitchen, garage conversion that is currently used as playroom and office, three double bedrooms and a modern family bathroom suite. Externally the property benefits from driveway parking and an attractive landscaped rear garden.

Queensway is conveniently situated within close proximity of the local recreational park, tennis club and nature reserve. The area has various pedestrian pathways which provide safe passage to nearby local schools, bus stops and amenities, including Emmer Green Shopping Centre, which offers a range of shopping services. An early viewing is highly recommended. EPC rating D. Council tax band C.

